

Trough the night

I embrace you
I breathe you I fondle you Blindly

Your clandestine caves Your simmering core Your cellular surface
Are one with the tides

Bumblebees and snails
Whisper to me
Whisper
Whisper
In my occupied ear

Pinholes open and close breath supplies the organs
My liver and my vagina
Are united with me

I embrace you
I breathe you
I fondle you Blindly

I'm simply happy
Happy to be here
At this wounded place
At this hurt place

Monsters and saints are being born Leave profound tracks in space
Aimlessly straying dreams
Whirr across the black night

Intrigues and jealousy penetrate into time Lies are being born and augment themselves
The greyscales on my palette Penetrate torso and space

I embrace you
I breathe you
I fondle you
Blindly

Causality of cause and impact Going where no one has been before Inventing interdimensional space Going where no one has been
before

Mushroom webs penetrate the ground Burrow through space Insects, mushrooms and snails Perceive me as well

Pinholes open and close
My liver and my vagina
Are united with me

Mycelia penetrates this earth Mends voids and detoxes them Flees to the distant future That sprouted 30'000 years ago

I embrace you
I breathe you
I fondle you
Blindly

Monsters and saints are being
born
Leave profound tracks in space
Aimlessly straying dreams

Bumblebees and snails
Whisper to me
Whisper
Whisper
In my occupied ear

Wander through the black of
night
Under the arm the glowing sphere
Birth and death as companion
Spirits all over

Lurking and shining Form and build Reach and borders Rethinking this world

I'm a planet
I'm nature and cosmos The sensors are hidden in the fog Lighthouses dispatch signals

Peyote surrounded by sparse landscapes Sitting like a stone
In front of a sparse cliff We're lone together

This planet Paint it blue Paint it black Paint it yellow, green and red

Wander through the black of
night
Birth and death as companion
Under the arm the glowing
sphere
Now

ignorance and power empathy and understanding what we do and think will leave traces

the fire in me
the fire in me
draws traces traces that vanquish in nothingness

thirsty and lonely emigrating to the desert without security deciding on something

Wander through the black of
night
Under the arm the glowing
sphere
Birth and death as companion
Spirits all over

Water curls in the wind
The planet smolders and burns us up Circuits and key moments The resources have been used up

Un-braiding and understanding Poking sensors into the flesh of this world
The quiet whispering of microorganisms Inhaling and whispering on Freed of all chores Freed of all duties Strengthening the wit

In the simple mind

Wander through the black of
night
Under the arm the glowing
sphere
Birth and death as companion
Spirits all over

I'm simply happy
Happy to be here
At this wounded place
At this hurt place

The search for a pain free zone It's helpless and vain However one interprets the signals

It gleams and gales

It gleams and gales
The quiet whispering of microorganisms Blows through my digestive system
It gleams and gales

I embrace you
I breathe you
I fondle you
Blindly

I squeeze my eyelids shut And squint through the day Curious colours inside my head
The fields glowing themselves into the evening

You stand in a bomb-destrocted house
And look in my direction Everything important to you has been destroyed You're looking in my eyes

You're standing in rubble My 3-D glasses are mounted perfectly To experience your misery first hand
And yet be distanced from it

Wander through the black of
night
Under the arm the glowing
sphere
Birth and death as companion
Spirits all over

Who has laid this misery upon you?

My shame, my wrath, my helplessness Work through and intoxicate me Why can I be happy?

The greed and cruelty Creep through the veins of history Like a tender liquid Vanity destroys the hope for peace

The Black hole collapses
The eczema and mushrooms
The algae and microbes
Escape to an unknown universe

I paint black, and deeper black
The lacquer drips down the rim
of time
The algae and microbes

Wander through the black of
night
Under the arm the glowing
sphere
Birth and death as companion
Spirits all over

I paint black, and deeper black
of time
The algae and microbes
